

NICOLA DISKIC - Baritone

Nikola Diskić possesses a vast operatic repertoire that spans from the Baroque era to the present day. He dedicates himself to an extensive concert career, showcasing his talents as a versatile song and concert soloist.

In 2012, Nikola was honored with the prestigious Arnold-Petersen Prize by the Roland-Ernst Foundation, recognizing him as a promising emerging talent with immense future potential. His exceptional artistic abilities were further acknowledged in 2015 when he was bestowed with the renowned Trude Eipperle-Rieger Prize, celebrating his outstanding accomplishments as a young artist. Within the realm of professional music criticism, the baritone garners high praise for his distinguished vocal elegance, his resplendent and refined tonal quality, his flawless legato, and his impeccably nuanced phrasing and portrayal. Reviewers often describe his voice as robust, voluminous, and truly magnificent.

In his hometown Belgrade, Serbia, Nikola received his initial vocal training in his birthplace. Alongside his successful pursuit of a degree in business administration, he completed his vocal studies and master's program at the esteemed State University of Music and Performing Arts in Mannheim. Under the tutelage of Snežana Stramenković, he excelled in his vocal training, graduating with honors. Impressively, he secured a permanent position as a valued ensemble member at the renowned National Theatre Mannheim while still pursuing his studies.
